

EVENTS 2018-2019

	Organic Gardening Talk and Demonstration By Ana Arsénio, In Loco	POSTPONED INDEFINITELY
Sunday December 9	Barrocal Botanic Garden Winter Open Day Guided Walks / Book & Seed Sales	Contact Rose Peddle for more info rosie@thebtf.net
January / February 2019	John Lavranos Memorial Lecture By Tim Harvey, supported by Alain Rzepecky.	Topic, date and location to be announced.
January 20	Open Gardens and MGAP Plant Sales Quinta das Sesmarias/Casa Jardim and others in the Moncarapacho area	Contact Rose Peddle for more info rosie@thebtf.net
Spring Various dates	Garden Visits See how other members are putting the principles of Mediterranean gardening into practice	More info from Tessa Hearn mgapevents@gmail.com
Saturday March 16?	MGAP Spring Fair, Silves	Location to be announced Details from Sue Finlay mgapfairs@gmail.com
Friday 5 to Sunday 7 April 2019 Pre-tour (2 to 5 April)	International Spring Conference 2019 “Bringing the Mediterranean Landscape into your Garden” MGAP is currently planning the 2019 International Spring Conference taking place in Évora. A pre-tour will take place in the Algarve.	Contact Rosie Peddle (rosie@thebtf.net) for more information and to express interest in reserving places. Residential packages available Please register your interest to receive first notice of programme.
Saturday April 27	AGM	More details later